We are seeking an experienced caseworker for the Staying Home Leaving Violence Service for a 11 month maternity leave contract role. You will be part of a team delivering a best practice, specialist, trauma-informed model of service delivery to women affected by domestic and family violence (DFV) and committed to empowering women and children to break the cycle of DFV.

About South West Sydney Legal Centre

South West Sydney Legal Centre (SWSLC) is a not for profit community legal centre.

Our legal services include information, advice and legal representation for people in South West Sydney whose access to justice is denied or constrained, and include specialised legal services for victim-survivors of DFV.

Our DFV services include court support and advocacy, safety planning, case management and financial counselling.

Both the legal and DFV teams offer tailored training and workshops to community members and community organisations.

We give our clients the guidance, legal advice, support services and strength they need to claim their rights, know their options and choose their next steps.

About the role

Our case management workers work closely with colleagues to provide an effective and streamlined service to adult and child victims of domestic and family violence with support to escape and recover from abuse, by providing practical and emotional support to victims who have escaped the abuser. Child clients are considered as clients in their own right and direct services are provided to children. Services to children are negotiated and agreed on by the parent client of the service. The successful applicants will have strong interpersonal and organisational skills, demonstrated understanding of the dynamics, complexities and legal and social welfare consequences of domestic violence and experience supporting people impacted by domestic abuse. Responsibilities include face to face consultation, home visits and facilitation of client group work.

Applicants must have a commitment to empowering women and children affected by DFV, an understanding or willingness to learn the principles of a trauma-informed approach to service delivery, have demonstrated ability to engage effectively with clients from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and have demonstrated ability to engage effectively with clients in crisis.

Proficiency in a language other than English is desirable.

This position is open to female applicants only. SWSLC considers being a woman to be a genuine occupational qualification for this position under s. 31 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 (NSW). Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women are strongly encouraged to apply.

Closing Date: Suitable applicants will be interviewed progressively as applications are received. As we need to appoint a suitable candidate as soon as possible, this advertisement has no closing date. However, we understand that your time is valuable so please feel free to contact us prior to preparing your application, to check if the role has been filled.

Contact Person: Enquiries about the role should be emailed to Elly Raffo, Manager D&FV Casework Services elly@swslc.org.au

The preferred applicant will be required to undergo a Working with Children Check and a National Police Records Check.

How to apply for this position:

1. Visit our website <https://swslc.org.au/contact/work-with-us/> for a copy of the position description, essential and desirable criteria and instructions on how to apply.
2. Send your covering letter, resume and a document detailing how your skills and experience meet the essential and desirable criteria to alison@swslc.org.au
