

South West Sydney
LEGAL CENTRE

FREE training & education

We empower community members & community workers through education

Our training:

- supports people to understand their legal rights and responsibilities and how to navigate the legal system
- shares knowledge and skills to support community workers assist their clients with legal issues

Contact info@swslc.org.au for more information or to book a session.

We run sessions on a range of legal topics and domestic and family violence

Our sessions are run by lawyers and other experts who can answer your questions.

Who is the training for?

Our sessions can be for the general public, community workers or a tailored session dedicated to the clients of a particular organisation.

Can we choose a topic?

If you have a particular topic you need covered, we can create a workshop to cater for the needs and interests of your staff or clients.

Language and accessibility

Let us know if language translation is required, or any other accessibility needs.

Learn about:

- AVOs
- Consumer law
- Criminal law
 - Dealing with Police
 - Court processes
 - Fines
 - Supporting clients with a cognitive impairment
- Domestic Violence
- Family Law
 - Parenting
 - Property
 - Family law & family violence
- Employment law
 - Work Rights
 - Impacts of COVID-19
 - Discrimination
- Motor vehicle accidents
- Planning ahead
 - Wills & Probate
 - Powers of Attorney & other documents
- Subpoenas & warrants
- SWSLC service overview
- Victims Support Scheme
- And more...